

Your Name
Your Street
City, State Zip

Pam Bondi, Attorney General
Office of the Attorney General State of Florida
The Capitol PL-01
Tallahassee, FL 32399-1050

Date

Attorney General Bondi:

In article 1, section 9 of the United States Constitution, office holders are barred from accepting "any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever from any King, Prince or foreign state."

This is relevant as Donald Trump has declared that he will not sell his businesses or create a blind trust for his holdings, and Donald Trump's businesses, foreign and domestic, are receiving such payments. His new hotel in Washington, DC has actively sought emoluments through payments from foreign governments for use of the hotel. He is in violation of the United States' Constitution.

You have an absolute obligation, through the elected office you hold, and because of the oath you have taken to uphold the constitution of your state and the Constitution of the United States of America to reject Donald Trump for the office of the President of the United States when you cast your electoral vote on December 19th 2016.

I remind you that your oath of office supersedes your obligation to your party or to the Electoral College.

Very truly,

Your signature

Print your name

Your Name
Your Street
City, State Zip

Joe Negron, Florida State Legislator
412 Senate Office Building 404 South Monroe Street,
Tallahassee, Florida 32399

Date

Mr. Negron:

In article 1, section 9 of the United States Constitution, office holders are barred from accepting "any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever from any King, Prince or foreign state."

This is relevant as Donald Trump has declared that he will not sell his businesses or create a blind trust for his holdings, and Donald Trump's businesses, foreign and domestic, are receiving such payments. His new hotel in Washington, DC has actively sought emoluments through payments from foreign governments for use of the hotel. He is in violation of the United States' Constitution.

You have an absolute obligation, through the elected office you hold, and because of the oath you have taken to uphold the constitution of your state and the Constitution of the United States of America to reject Donald Trump for the office of the President of the United States when you cast your electoral vote on December 19th 2016.

I remind you that your oath of office supersedes your obligation to your party or to the Electoral College.

Very truly,

Your signature

Print your name

Your Name
Your Street
City, State Zip

Melinda Smyser, Idaho State Senator

483 Russell Senate Office Building,
Washington, DC 20510

Date

Senator Smyser:

In article 1, section 9 of the United States Constitution, office holders are barred from accepting "any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever from any King, Prince or foreign state."

This is relevant as Donald Trump has declared that he will not sell his businesses or create a blind trust for his holdings, and Donald Trump's businesses, foreign and domestic, are receiving such payments. His new hotel in Washington, DC has actively sought emoluments through payments from foreign governments for use of the hotel. He is in violation of the United States' Constitution.

You have an absolute obligation, through the elected office you hold, and because of the oath you have taken to uphold the constitution of your state and the Constitution of the United States of America to reject Donald Trump for the office of the President of the United States when you cast your electoral vote on December 19th 2016.

I remind you that your oath of office supersedes your obligation to your party or to the Electoral College.

Very truly,

Your signature

Print your name

Your Name
Yourl Street
City, State Zip

Ron Estes, Kansas State Treasurer
900 SW Jackson Suite 201
Topeka, Kansas, 66612-1235;

Date

Mr. Estes:

In article 1, section 9 of the United States Constitution, office holders are barred from accepting "any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever from any King, Prince or foreign state."

This is relevant as Donald Trump has declared that he will not sell his businesses or create a blind trust for his holdings, and Donald Trump's businesses, foreign and domestic, are receiving such payments. His new hotel in Washington, DC has actively sought emoluments through payments from foreign governments for use of the hotel. He is in violation of the United States' Constitution.

You have an absolute obligation, through the elected office you hold, and because of the oath you have taken to uphold the constitution of your state and the Constitution of the United States of America to reject Donald Trump for the office of the President of the United States when you cast your electoral vote on December 19th 2016.

I remind you that your oath of office supersedes your obligation to your party or to the Electoral College.

Very truly,

Your signature

Print your name

Your Name
Yourl Street
City, State Zip

Marty Jackley, Attorney General of South Dakota
Office of the Attorney General
1302 E Hwy 14 Suite 1,
Pierre, SD 57501

Date

Attorney General Jackley:

In article 1, section 9 of the United States Constitution, office holders are barred from accepting "any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever from any King, Prince or foreign state."

This is relevant as Donald Trump has declared that he will not sell his businesses or create a blind trust for his holdings, and Donald Trump's businesses, foreign and domestic, are receiving such payments. His new hotel in Washington, DC has actively sought emoluments through payments from foreign governments for use of the hotel. He is in violation of the United States' Constitution.

You have an absolute obligation, through the elected office you hold, and because of the oath you have taken to uphold the constitution of your state and the Constitution of the United States of America to reject Donald Trump for the office of the President of the United States when you cast your electoral vote on December 19th 2016.

I remind you that your oath of office supersedes your obligation to your party or to the Electoral College.

Very truly,

Your signature

Print your name

Your Name
Yourl Street

City, State Zip

Governor Dennis Daugaard
Office of the Governor
500 East Capitol Avenue
Pierre, SD 57501

Date

Governor Daugaard:

In article 1, section 9 of the United States Constitution, office holders are barred from accepting "any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever from any King, Prince or foreign state."

This is relevant as Donald Trump has declared that he will not sell his businesses or create a blind trust for his holdings, and Donald Trump's businesses, foreign and domestic, are receiving such payments. His new hotel in Washington, DC has actively sought emoluments through payments from foreign governments for use of the hotel. He is in violation of the United States' Constitution.

You have an absolute obligation, through the elected office you hold, and because of the oath you have taken to uphold the constitution of your state and the Constitution of the United States of America to reject Donald Trump for the office of the President of the United States when you cast your electoral vote on December 19th 2016.

I remind you that your oath of office supersedes your obligation to your party or to the Electoral College.

Very truly,

Your signature

Print your name

Your Name
Yourl Street

City, State Zip

Matt Michels, Lieutenant Governor of South Dakota
500 East Capitol Avenue
Pierre, SD, 57501

Date

Lieutenant Governor Michels:

In article 1, section 9 of the United States Constitution, office holders are barred from accepting "any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever from any King, Prince or foreign state."

This is relevant as Donald Trump has declared that he will not sell his businesses or create a blind trust for his holdings, and Donald Trump's businesses, foreign and domestic, are receiving such payments. His new hotel in Washington, DC has actively sought emoluments through payments from foreign governments for use of the hotel. He is in violation of the United States' Constitution.

You have an absolute obligation, through the elected office you hold, and because of the oath you have taken to uphold the constitution of your state and the Constitution of the United States of America to reject Donald Trump for the office of the President of the United States when you cast your electoral vote on December 19th 2016.

I remind you that your oath of office supersedes your obligation to your party or to the Electoral College.

Very truly,

Your signature

Print your name

Your Name
Yourl Street
City, State Zip

Patrick Morrissey, Attorney General, West Virginia
State Capitol Complex, Building 1, Room E-26
Charleston, WV 25305

Date

:

Attorney General Morrissey:

In article 1, section 9 of the United States Constitution, office holders are barred from accepting "any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever from any King, Prince or foreign state."

This is relevant as Donald Trump has declared that he will not sell his businesses or create a blind trust for his holdings, and Donald Trump's businesses, foreign and domestic, are receiving such payments. His new hotel in Washington, DC has actively sought emoluments through payments from foreign governments for use of the hotel. He is in violation of the United States' Constitution.

You have an absolute obligation, through the elected office you hold, and because of the oath you have taken to uphold the constitution of your state and the Constitution of the United States of America to reject Donald Trump for the office of the President of the United States when you cast your electoral vote on December 19th 2016.

I remind you that your oath of office supersedes your obligation to your party or to the Electoral College.

Very truly,

Your signature

Print your name